BANKERS FINANCE, OF JACKSONVILLE, IN BANKRUPTCY

Proceedings Filed Against Florida Concern Owned by Manley by State
Comptroller.

MAJORITY OF STOCK OWNED BY MANLEY

Florida Bank Official Says Move Is Instituted To Aid in Reopening Closed Banks.

Another bulwark in the vast fortune which W. D. Manley accumulated during his years of banking crumbled Tuesday, when bankruptcy proceedings were filed against the Bankers' Finance company, of Jacksonville, Fla. This new blow to the Manley fortune came while the question of Manley's sanity was being argued in Fulton county ordinary's court. Manley is said to have owned a majority of the stock in the company which was held in the Bankers' Trust company.

Proceedings were filed by Attorneys Carl N. Davis and Charles F. Reid, of Atlanta, for Ernest Amos, Florida comptroller.

Owned Majority. It is understood that 302 shares of the stock in the Bankers' Finance company was held in the name of the Bankers' Trust company, of which Manley was head. According to attorneys for the Georgia banking department, Manley owned practically all of this stock. The total number of shares was 500, it is said.

Mr. Manley was interested, jointly, with J. R. Anthony in the Bankers' Finance company, it is said. According to dispatches from Florida, Mr. Amos made the move to protect the assets of the company from further depletions and protect depositors of the banks, in which the Bankers' Finance company held stock.

MOVE TO CONSERVE ASSETS. Jacksonville, Fla., August 24.—(AP)—Bankruptcy proceedings against the Bankers' Finance company, of Jacksonville, have been filed by State Comptroller Ernest Amos, he announced.

In order to conserve the assets and protect the depositors of the banks in his charge as far as possible and assist in reopening them, Mr. Amos said he deemed it necessary to file the proceedings.

He said that in looking through the assets of a number of the banking institutions taken over by him, it appeared that a part of their capital stock is held by the Bankers' Finance company which should be released in order to work out reorganization plans to better advantage, and that he believes the most expeditious way to handle the situation and secure such stock is through bankruptcy court.

To Preserve Assets. The comptroller made it plain that this step was merely for the preservation of the assets and said it should have no effect whatever on the banking situation of the state except in a helpful way by bringing the assets to light, whatever they are, where all interests may be fully protected.

Some of the banks have already reopened and Mr. Amos expects the proceedings to materially assist in reopening others.

Appointment of Frank M. Gelson, as receiver for the Peoples' Bank of Marianna, was announced by State Comptroller Amos late today. This was one of the banks suspending business during the recent financial flurry in Florida and Georgia, and is the third one to have a receiver appointed and the fifth this week.

Atlanta a Great Retail Center

Residents of Atlanta and its immediate suburbs may have first chance at the splendid bargains offered by the merchants of Atlanta, but as Harry Lauder says, they've got to "Be up an' doin' aroun'" to gain any advantage.

Good roads and swift automobiles make dealing in Atlanta an easy matter for people who live as much as seventy-five miles from the city. Add to this the advantage of the finest stores in the south, big stocks of the very best merchandise, the very latest in everything, priced right, and it is no wonder that hundreds drive to Atlanta every day to shop.

Effort To Bar Krishnamurti Meets Defeat

Foes Try To Keep Him Out of U. S. Charging "Moral Turpitude."

New York, August 24.—Representations to keep Jeddah Krishnamurti from landing in New York Wednesday on complaints that the Indian prophet was guilty of "moral turpitude," failed today when Immigration Commissioner Benjamin M. Day decided that the evidence did not warrant such action.

Commissioner Day said, however, that the foes of Krishnamurti promised to submit new and more convincing evidence Wednesday which may result in the exclusion of the Theosophist savior, who is sponsored by Mrs. Annie Besant, chief of Theosophists.

"I find," said the commissioner, "from an examination of the complaints, no evidence that Krishnamurti himself has been guilty of moral crimes. His examination on the ship may reveal it, but the charges do not."

Krishnamurti will arrive on the liner Majestic early Wednesday morning.

MAYORALTY RACE FEATURES RALLY IN THIRD WARD

Candidate Robert A. Gordon Shocks Two Opponents by Charging They Have Been Bankrupt.

BY HERMAN D. HANCOCK.

Charges and counter charges and insinuations precluding the most bitterly contested mayoralty race held in Atlanta in the past several years broke Tuesday night at a rally in the third ward. It promised to place the race for mayor in the fore and even eclipse the contest for the post of congress for this district.

In an effort to refute the claim of Alderman Charles M. Ford, of the tenth, and Dr. L. N. Huff, two of his opponents in the campaign for mayor, that they are successful business men, Robert A. Gordon charged that both have been bankrupt and exhibited papers to prove his contention.

This fell like a bomb at the meeting and although Mr. Ford and Montague Power, who spoke for Dr. Huff, had spoken and no rebuttal could be made under the speaking rules, elicited a comment from the accused. Both of whom declared they wished to take the stand again to refute the charge.

Hartsfield Presided. The meeting was sponsored by the third ward delegation in council and Councilman Charles Chosewood, who will be nominated for another term without opposition, thanked citizens of the ward for the confidence and courtesy they extended to him. Alderman William B. Hartsfield and Councilman Ben E. Huie occupied seats on the rostrum. Mr. Hartsfield presiding. A large number of citizens were present despite the rain which fell intermittently during the session.

Seventeen candidates for various posts in the state and city election bid for votes at the session, and all were received cordially by those present.

Tull C. Waters, speaking for Leslie J. Steele, and William D. Upchurch, also spoke.

HEAR OPPOSITION TO GUARDIANSHIP IN COURT TODAY

Bank Department and Creditors Expected To Hit Insanity Contention of Petitioners' Witnesses.

DR. ALLEN STATES MANLEY IS INSANE

Judge Powell Tells of Conversation in Which Banker Argued Women Have No Souls.

Intimating during cross-examination of witnesses Tuesday that it will contend W. D. Manley, president of the defunct Bankers' Trust company, is "faking" insanity, the opposition to appointment of a guardian for the banker is scheduled to begin submission of its testimony in Fulton county court of ordinary late today.

Attorneys for the state banking department and creditors of Manley, questioning Dr. H. G. Allen, Jr., alienist, testifying in behalf of the guardianship petition, Tuesday bluntly inquired if a man of sound mind could not have acted as Manley has acted since the crash of the Bankers' Trust company and the subsequent closing of the doors of many small chain banks in Georgia and Florida. This the alienist denied, expressing belief that Manley is suffering from cerebro-arterio-sclerosis-psychosis, a disease resulting from hardening of the arteries.

Opposing attorneys asked if Manley was not suffering from the same disease which resulted in the death of former President Woodrow Wilson, which, they claimed, left the war leader's mind clear to the end despite the fact that his physical powers were decaying in the grasp of approaching death. Dr. Allen said he was unacquainted with the nature of the malady which proved fatal to Wilson.

As a second line on the attack it will launch on the petition of Manley's family for appointment of a guardian for the banker, the opposition Tuesday also disclosed during cross-examination of witnesses that it will attempt to show that Manley's business activities since the crash of his banks have been normal and that

EDUCATION BOARD WILL MEET FRIDAY

Only Matters Pertaining To Bond Program Ex- pected To Come Up at Called Meeting.

Despite announcement that no meeting of the board of education would be held until September 14, the regular September meeting date, Dr. R. M. Eubanks, president Tuesday afternoon called a special session to take place at the city council chamber at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Only matters pertaining to the bond program will be considered, it was announced Tuesday. City council has approved the "A" group, which allocated $1,000,000 to be spent this year in the school improvement program and school authorities are anxious to begin administration of this fund as soon as possible in order that new school units may be available to care for the great increase in school attendance this year.

"Every Child in School" is the slogan adopted by school authorities, the Parent-Teacher council, the Rotary, Kiwanis and Civic clubs and street car Tuesday had the slogan prominently displayed. The Georgia Railway and Power company Tuesday announced a call for a special session to take place at the city council chamber at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

All previous one-day records fell Monday before the rush of students for registration, according to figures given out Tuesday by M. E. Coleman, director of the school's department of census and attendance. A grand total of 300 registered.

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, Tuesday issued a statement in which he praised the work of Mr. Coleman's department and in which he lauded clubs and societies and the power company for their assistance in the effort to register every student before September 7, the opening day of the fall term.

MANIAC KILLED BY OWN BOMB; BANK WRECKED

Great Explosion Follows Refusal of Pittsburgh Fi- nanciers To Pay $2,000 He Demanded.

BANK POLICEMAN KILLED BY BLAST

Bandit Beheaded as Ex- plosion Wrecks Interior of Farmers' Bank and Injures Score Others.

Pittsburgh, August 24.—(AP)—A man, believed to have been a maniac who escaped from a city hospital several weeks ago, late today set off a bomb in the Farmers' Deposit Savings bank, killing himself and a policeman and injuring a score of bank employees and pedestrians. The banking rooms were wrecked.

The bomber caused the explosion after he had threatened to blow the bank up if a demand for $2,000 was refused, and just as the policeman who was killed was about to arrest him. Later tonight, the supposed maniac had not been identified but police were working on the theory that he was John T. Collins. This name was not contained in a small book found by the body, but notations were found which were believed to have been made by Collins before he was taken to the hospital for observation as to his sanity.

Foreigner Blamed.

In a statement tonight, Edward B. Coll, executive head of the Farmers' Deposit Savings bank, said the bomb had been exploded by a "foreigner, evidently demented." The bank officer also said that "while considerable damage was done to the banking rooms by the explosion, it was not of such a nature as to interfere with the transaction of business."

The bank, he said, would be open for business tomorrow as usual.

After viewing the body relatives of Collins declared the body was not that of their son. A brother-in-law said Collins had gray hair, while that of the man who caused the blast was black.

Questioned as to the whereabouts of Collins, relatives said they did not know where he had gone following his escape from the hospital.

Escapes From Asylum.

After throwing bricks and breaking furniture in the council chamber some time ago, Collins was sent to Mayfair asylum for observation.

After questioning bank employees the police said that undoubtedly a nitroglycerin bomb had been used.

The blast came as special bank police hurried forward to arrest the blackmailer, who had presented his demand in a note to a teller. The bomber calmly placing a small black handbag at his feet after making his threat, and when the officers approached him, he gave the satchel a violent kick, causing an explosion which killed himself and a teller, Jones, and wounded several others, many of whom were recently have discussed the farm situation with him.

Chaos Reigns As Thousands Seek Glimpse of Valentino

CLASSIC FEATURES ARE RESTORED BY ART

BY FRANK GETTY.

New York, August 24.—Driving rain, beating down in torrents upon a struggling, jostling mass of humanity; a tossing sea of black umbrellas bobbing for two blocks about a Broadway undertaking parlor; women with eager faces pressing forward in an endless line; ambulances clanging; police, mounted and afoot, swearing and striving to restore a semblance of order—such was part of the extraordinary scene Tuesday as thousands fought for a last glimpse of Rudolph Valentino.

Inside, in the cool interior of the establishment, the scene changed. Voices that had been raised in strident protest amid the turmoil outside were suddenly hushed as the now orderly line of men, women and children passed swiftly and silently past the still figure in its ornate coffin.

Comely Features Restored. His classic features composed in death, and restored by a marvel of

WORLD COURT TRADE DENIED BY PRESIDENT

Coolidge Is Said To Scout Idea That Foreign Coun- tries Would Offer Such Proposals.

TARIFF WOULD GO TO CONGRESS VOTE

Proposals for Reduction Are Considered Imprac- tical by Executive, Say White House Spokesmen

Paul Smith's N. Y., August 24.—(AP) There is no foundation, in the opinion of President Coolidge, for any supposition that foreign countries will suggest proposals for some sort of economic trades in connection with the entrance of the United States into the permanent court of international justice.

It is the assumption of Mr. Coolidge, it was said at the summer white house in his behalf today, that the question of American admission to the court will be dealt with on its merits, involving, as it does, acquiescence by other nations in the senate reservations to the protocol of adherence.

Referring to reports that reductions in the American tariff would be sought from abroad before consent would be given the United States to become a member of the court on the terms it has set forth, officials pointed out that proposals of that character would have to be taken up by congress, a course deemed impractical here.

The president doubts, it was added, that any informed authorities of other countries would think of making any such suggestion.

Word of Caution Sounded.

A word of caution was sounded informally to the press of the country today from the summer white house on the effect the publication of the "unfounded suppositions" concerning foreign affairs may have upon the maintenance of friendly relations of the United States with other nations.

Without specific references to recent dispatches, but a mention in general of the "unfounded suppositions" which have appeared both in this country and in Europe, officials said in behalf of the president that the press "should exercise care" in such matters.

Reference was made to the address Mr. Coolidge delivered at the laying of the cornerstone of the National Press building in Washington last spring when he pointed out the harmful effects on friendly relations among countries of unfounded reports in the press.

There is, of course, it was made clear, a large field for candid discussion of a revision of tariff schedules, especially on agricultural products, in the congress to be elected in November. It was said Mr. Coolidge had heard little if any comment on that question from visitors at White Pine camp, many of whom recently have discussed the farm situation with him.

The president, it was added, had read the views of Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, as set forth during his call last week at the summer white house predicting that the agricultural west would move for such a revision but the senator did not discuss the subject with Mr. Coolidge.

Medical Student Arrested For Poisoning Sweetheart

POISON FOUND IN GIRL'S STOMACH

Chairman of House Ap- propriations Committee Presents Figures to President Coolidge.

Cleveland, Ohio, August 24.—(AP)—Orders for the detention of Emil (Frenchy) Balanescu, medical student, following the discovery of poison in the stomach of Dorothy Elizabeth Kirk, his 21-year-old sweetheart, who died mysteriously in a hospital Sunday, were issued tonight by the county coroner and federal narcotic agents.

Coroner A. P. Hammond instructed police to hold Balanescu for questioning by county authorities but no charge has been placed against him.

Federal Agent Interested. J. T. Wall, federal narcotic agent, also requested that the young Frenchman be held pending an investigation to determine whether he is a man wanted by federal authorities for illegal possession of sleep-producing medicines.

OFFICIALS PLEDGE TO PUT PEACHTREE PARK IN SYSTEM

U. S. Officers Positively State Government Would Include Proposed Park in Kennesaw Project.

After a day devoted to a thorough inspection of the Peachtree creek battlefield, where one of the most sanguinary military engagements of all history took place during the war between the states, high government officials, headed by Major General John L. Clem, chairman of the Kennesaw Mountain Battlefield Memorial park, Tuesday declared emphatically that the government would include this battlefield in the Kennesaw park system if the city of Atlanta will make a public park of the site.

Almost every inch of the battlefield was covered by the inspecting party, which included, besides General Clem, other army officers, among whom were Colonel W. P. Stokely, member of the commission, and Colonel T. W. Darrah, chief of staff of the fourth army corps area.

As they finished their inspection work members of the party were emphatic in their declaration that there is no doubt that the government will include the Peachtree creek battlefield in the system of memorial parks authorized to be created under the act creating the Kennesaw mountain memorial park commission. Under this act authority is given to include battle sites in the vicinity of the proposed system of memorial parks.

Sanguinary Conflict. The battle of Peachtree creek was fought July 20, 1864, and in the few hours it lasted nearly 8,000 men were killed or wounded. This battle has been placed in historical records as one of the most sanguinary ever fought in any war, the percentage of casualties being one of the highest in history.

Members of the commission were deeply impressed with the historic interest resting in this famous battlefield. They visited many of the old breastworks used by the Confederate army and also visited the lines held by the Federal army. The Confederate battle line stretched along the south side of the creek from the Howell Mill road to Peachtree road. The Federal lines stretched virtually Starkling Developments Unearthed, Solicitor Announces in Donaldson Death Plot Probe.

Starkling new developments, the nature of which he declined to reveal at present, are being unearthed hourly by Solicitor General John A. Boykin, in the investigation of the assassination of his crack investigator, Bert Donaldson.

This announcement was made Tuesday afternoon by the solicitor following a lengthy session in which he grilled Jack Lance, who has been identified by three witnesses as the "elevator stranger" who was seen at the Georgian Terrace hotel with Donaldson on the night of the murder.

Information considered by Solicitor Boykin to be of the utmost importance has been gained from Lance, the solicitor said. He declined to make public at this time the nature of this evidence. Lance is believed to have "steered" Donaldson to the hotel, but the solicitor believes he did not fire the shotgun which brought death to the investigator.

MADDEN PROPOSES TO USE INTEREST PAID ON WAR DEBTS

Chairman of House Ap- propriations Committee Presents Figures to President Coolidge.

INTEREST PAYMENT INCREASES YEARLY

Madden Asserts Money Could Be Used for Cur- rent Expenses, Permit- ting Tax Cuts.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Paul Smith's, August 24.—Another considerable reduction of federal income taxes, possibly to the extent of $400,000,000, is foreshadowed by developments tonight at the summer white house at White Pine camp.

Martin B. Madden, of Chicago, chairman of the appropriations committee of the house, arrived late this afternoon with figures setting forth Uncle Sam's income and expense, past, present and prospective.

After supper, President Coolidge and Representative Madden pored over the sheets of figures to determine how much the government can afford to expend in the fiscal year of 1928 and still pay something for a rainy day.

Then it transpired that the astute chairman of the appropriations committee had brought with him a plan for further reduction of federal taxes in 1928.

Interest on War Debt. Mr. Madden called the attention of the president to an item of income on one of his sheets of figures: payment of interest by foreign nations on war-debt amortization of $120,000,000 a year at this time. This interest payment, which is steadily augmenting, is being devoted by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon to retirement of liberty bonds.

Mr. Mellon is doing this arbitrarily, without express direction of statute. The law merely prescribes that payments on principal of the war debt shall be devoted to retirement of our debt. The payments on principal now aggregate about $50,000,000 a year.

Mr. Madden pointed out that the $120,000,000 of war debt interest can be used under the law to pay current expenses of the government instead of to retire liberty bonds. If so used the government would not need to raise that amount of revenue and could reduce the amount of revenue needed to pay the debt.

Whether it is wise to continue the present practice was a question raised by Mr. Madden. He showed the president how our national debt, if we continue to use interest as well as principal payments to retire liberty bonds, will not be many years before the interest payments by Europe will aggregate $300,000,000. After our '28 interest payments these huge foreign interest payments will pile up in the treasury, constituting a temptation to

ENGINEERS ARRIVE TO BEGIN SURVEY

Lieutenant E. O. Heaton, of the United States geodetic survey, arrived in Atlanta Tuesday to begin the triangulation survey of Atlanta and environs in connection with the sewer department of the city and as the first project in the $3,000,000 bond issue voted by Atlanta for public improvements.

Council already has authorized expenditure of the fund for the triangulation survey and Lieutenant Heaton and assistants are expected to begin work on the project within the next few days.

A fund of $2,000,000 was allocated for sewer purposes in the bond issue; $3,500,000 for the schools; $1,000,000 for viaducts over Pryor street and Central avenue crossings; $1,000,000 for a new municipal building, and $500,000 for waterworks improvements.

The sewer, water, school and city hall bonds are clear of any litigation; the expenditure for construction of federal courts and is now pending on appeal to the United States appellate court.

It is expected that work on the several projects contemplated in the bond issue will begin shortly, and work on the viaducts can proceed, even though the matter is tied up in litigation, according to a ruling of City Attorney James L. Mayson.

Lieutenant Heaton will spend several days in a survey of Atlanta before he begins his map, which it is estimated will take over a year to complete.

HEALTH SURVEY POST PLANNED FOR GEORGIA

Biloxi, Miss., August 24.—(AP)—A salt water mosquito survey, with a sub-station either at Savannah or Brunswick, Ga., will be established for the purpose of studying health conditions along the south Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico coasts. It was announced here Tuesday by Dr. T. H. Griffiths of the United States public health service.

Dr. Griffiths has already established offices in Biloxi, and will have four assistants. The mosquito-survey project is provided for under an appropriation of $25,000.

Emory Graduate With Valentino As Death Nearer

One of the last persons to be with Rudolph Valentino before his death in the Polyclinic hospital in New York was Dr. William Bryant Rawls, an Emory graduate and a native of Williamson, Ga. Dr. Rawls was head house physician at the Polyclinic hospital and attended the great screen favorite during his illness.

Dr. Rawls was a graduate in the class of 1922 at Emory university and was a popular student there. He was a member of the Phi Chi medical fraternity and the Alpha Tau Omega literary fraternity. He is unmarried.

After leaving Emory, Dr. Rawls went to Shreveport, La., where he continued his study of medicine and went to the Polyclinic hospital about 18 months ago.

COTTON STATES MERCHANTS HOLD MEMPHIS MEET

Memphis, August 24.—Thomas K. Kelly, of Minnesota, addressing the delegates to the thirteenth annual session of the Cotton States Merchants' association, on the question, "Do Good Roads Hurt the Small Town Merchant?" argued that good roads have helped the small town merchant.

He asked them to bear in mind that roads through every town run both ways, and warned them that the way the traveler takes depends on the attractions at either end of the road.

Seven hundred delegates had registered from over the mid-south today. The session will extend over three days.

J. E. Orman, of Russellville, Ala., is president of the organization.

RED-HAIRED GIRLS TO FILL LAKEWOOD PARK AT MATINEE

Lakewood Park will flame this afternoon with the reflection of all the red-heads of the feminine gender under 16 years old in Atlanta on the occasion of selecting the "Duchess of Red-Heads" for the coming year of the city's queen of curls.

The "red-headed" contest is the latest of the series arranged for the Wednesday afternoon children's matinees at the park, when all youngsters under 16 have entry to all amusements of the park for a nickel each.

The contestants will be required to submit their flaming locks to an application of soap and water if requested by the judges to assure the genuineness of the colors displayed. The winner will be a guest at the fair, October 2 to 9, with free entrance into all the attractions there.

MISS ANNA GRIFFIN, COLUMBUS WOMAN, IS NEAR DEATH

Columbus, Ga., August 24.—Miss Anna Griffin, former city commissioner of Columbus, is near death in a hospital in St. Augustine, Fla., according to advices received from that city tonight. A message from the hospital said that her condition is critical and that death is expected any hour.

For many years Miss Griffin has been active in civic circles in Columbus. She is the only woman who has been a member of the city commission. She was one of the five members of the first commission, which succeeded the old council in 1922. She served two years.

OFFICIALS SEEK AERO WEATHER STATION HERE

Two United States officials visited Atlanta Tuesday with a view to establishment of an aerological service station at Candler field. This is the first definite step taken by the government towards the establishment of such a station here and if completed it is expected to do much toward developing aviation in Atlanta.

V. E. Jekl, of the United States weather bureau and department of agriculture, and Eugene Sibley, of the department of commerce, who were in Atlanta, were taken to the field by Alderman W. B. Hartfield, chairman of the city council's land use committee. Atlanta is one of 22 cities to be selected as an aerological service station site.

GIRL IS INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK

Sheffield, Ala., August 24.—(AP)—Miss Isabelle Poyet, of Sheffield, was slightly injured and several passengers were shaken up today when three Pullmans of the Memphis Special on the Southern railway were derailed at Salsbury, Tenn. The cause of the accident had not been determined by officials of the road at division headquarters here.

The presence of mind of W. W. Giles, engineer, in bringing the train to a quick stop prevented what might have resulted in a severe loss of life or injury.

Attracted by a jerky motion of his locomotive, Giles glanced back and saw the rear coaches bobbing along on the cross ties. Shouting to his fireman to stick to his post, Giles reversed the engine, jammed down the brakes and brought the train to a stop with the derailed cars only partly turned on their sides. The passengers climbed through the windows to safety and continued their journey to Memphis in the other coaches which Giles brought into the station here only an hour late.

An unidentified woman, slightly injured, was the only casualty reported to Southern railway officials here. At the time of the accident the train was traveling at reduced speed through the outskirts of Salsbury. Giles' home is in Sheffield, Ala. He has been "pulling" the Memphis Special three years.

THREE ARE HELD FOLLOWING DEATH OF GIRL IN AUTO

Huntsville, Ala., August 24.—(AP)—Two men and a woman were committed to the Madison county jail tonight to await the October grand jury's probe of the fatal shooting of Miss Catherine Campbell, twenty-year-old Merriam girl, who died of a bullet wound sustained or self-inflicted in the head while on a joy ride with three companions early today. They are Herman Franklin, her sweetheart; Names Mitchell, and his estranged wife, Mrs. Beulah Mitchell, who were with the girl when the shot was fired.

The car containing Roebuck was driven by Cleve Perry, 35, who suffered several broken ribs and was arrested on a charge of reckless driving. Guy McDaniel, who occupied the front seat, was only slightly hurt.

BUFORD MAN DIES IN AUTO CRASH; 2 SLIGHTLY HURT

Buford, Ga., August 24.—(Special).—Lue Roebuck, 20, today succumbed to internal injuries received when the motor car he was riding collided with a second machine driven by Frank Shadley, of Buford, late Monday night.

The car containing Roebuck was driven by Cleve Perry, 35, who suffered several broken ribs and was arrested on a charge of reckless driving. Guy McDaniel, who occupied the front seat, was only slightly hurt.

GREEKS THREATEN FALLEN DICTATOR

Athens, Greece, August 24.—(AP)—The popular anger against General Pangalos, the deposed dictator, has made it necessary for the authorities to transfer him to Aegina island, a small island a few miles from Athens in the Gulf of Aegina.

Invasion of the military hospital where Pangalos has been detained was threatened by organized mobs, and when motor cars with a strong escort arrived and removed the former president, crowds gathered and shouted denunciations against him.

Mme. Pangalos was present at the time and was quickly surrounded by a threatening mob which was dispersed by the military forces, and Pangalos was conveyed safely to a car which speeded away. He was placed aboard a special steamer and taken to Aegina.

The general appeared livid and exceedingly nervous and everywhere met with hostile demonstrations.

Rudy Valentino Made $2,000,000 Left $75,000

New York, August 24.—(AP)—Although Rudolph Valentino earned approximately $2,000,000 during his screen career, he was usually without money, Joseph M. Schenck, executive director of the United Artists corporation, for which Valentino made pictures, said today.

The potential earning power of the man who thrilled the romantic imaginations of screen fans was easily $1,000,000 a year, Mr. Schenck asserted, but his net estate, so far as is known, does not exceed $75,000.

"Valentino was just beginning to realize large earnings in the last two years," Mr. Schenck said. "I should say that in the last year and a quarter he made between $800,000 and $1,000,000 in pictures. He made perhaps $2,000,000 during his entire screen career."

"Rudy made no investments. He lived well, spending freely, and was exceedingly generous with his friends. I know he never had any money, regardless of his earnings. He didn't know its value."

Valentino had taken out a personal insurance policy of $50,000. Mr. Schenck said, with his brother and sister, Alberto and Maria Guglielmo as beneficiaries.

The United Artists had insured him for $200,000. Valentino had made a will which is now in Hollywood, according to S. George Ullman, the late actor's manager.

Girls Now Sorry They Took Poison; Both Will Recover

Jacksonville, Fla., August 24.—(AP)—Mrs. Leta Mae Dodson, 21, and Margaret Wood, 17, waitresses, told attendants at the county hospital tonight that they do not want to die. Physicians said they will recover.

"I want to live now," sobbed Margaret Wood. "I can see how foolish it is," she cried, "and I hope God will forgive me." The Dodson woman, whose husband left her Saturday for Norfolk, Va., without telling her goodbye, also regretted trying to end her life.

Despondent because her husband left Jacksonville after a quarrel with her, Mrs. Dodson told her children she wanted to die, and begged her to end her life with her.

"I must have been crazy," the younger girl told police, "but I agreed and we decided to swallow the poison." Miss Wood said she had known Mrs. Dodson for a number of years and that she loved her as if she were a sister.

Mrs. Dodson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Eiland, live in Montgomery, Ala. The younger girl's mother and sister live here.

After deciding to end their lives, the girls retired. They swallowed the poison and then turned out the light in their room. Hours later, persons living in the apartment building heard groans coming from their apartment.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN TO MAKE ATLANTA CLEANER IS BEGUN

This morning was the zero hour and all owners of vacant lots on which weeds flourish who have not had them cut, or merchants who have not complied with city sanitary laws in reference to disposal of refuse, may expect to be forced to do so at once. It was announced Tuesday night by Chief John J. Jentzen, of the city sanitary department, Mr. Jentzen will be aided in the work by a city-wide committee of women under the direction of Mrs. J. R. Little, chairman of a committee of the Atlanta Women's club interested in making Atlanta beautiful and healthful.

The women held a meeting Tuesday morning at the Chamber of Commerce building, at which ward chairmen made reports of the work being done in their respective sections of the city in a sanitary way.

Much enthusiasm was exhibited and all chairmen reported marked progress. These twelve chairmen—one from each ward of the city—will make reports to the sanitary department of lots on which the weeds have not been cut, and city forces will do this work and assess the property owners for the cost.

I. usewives have been asked to see that all garbage cans are properly covered in order that the possibility of the spread of disease through this medium may be obviated.

The women under the direction of Mrs. Little have banded together to push a vigorous move aimed to make Atlanta more beautiful and healthful. They are cooperating with the sanitary department and the sanitary committee which is headed by W. E. Saunders, of the twelfth.

Young Stribling Will Speak Here To Restaurant Men

W. L. ("Young") Stribling, one of Georgia's most widely-known athletes, will be among the principal speakers at the annual convention of the National Restaurant association at Atlanta during the week of October 4.

Stribling, who is vice president of the Bristling Cafeteria company of Atlanta, is expected to relate some of his experiences in obtaining food fit for a fighting man in some of the hotels and restaurants he has been compelled to patronize.

One of the outstanding features of the convention will be a bill of fare contest. Restaurant operators throughout the United States are asked to submit their bills of fare and menus in competition for prizes. Another feature of the contest will be the presence of the best-looking waitresses in America, who is now being selected in the competition being conducted by one of the national periodicals.

GENERAL HAGOOD
VISITS WAR SITE

Moore's Creek Bridge, N. C., August 24.—(AP)—Major General John H. Hagood, commander of the Fourth corps area, Mrs. Alfred J. Hagood, president general of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, and a host of other notables were here today to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the revolutionary battle of Moore's Creek Bridge.

Hanford MacNider, assistant secretary of war, will accept for the federal government the grant of a 30-acre tract of land which is to be transferred into a federal park.

Others on the program also included Representative C. L. Abernethy, of North Carolina, who sponsored a bill authorizing acceptance of the tract for a national park, and Senator Lee S. Overman, who obtained passage of the bill in the senate.

The women's organization, headed by Mrs. Hagood, is sponsoring the celebration.

VALDOSTA EVANGELIST, RUN DOWN BY CAR, DIES

Council Bluffs, Iowa, August 24.—(AP)—The Rev. Jesse Love, 52, evangelist from Valdosta, Ga., who was run down by an automobile driven by Richard Seeger, of this city, died Tuesday. His skull was fractured in the accident.

Mr. Love had just arrived in Council Bluffs to conduct revival meetings in a tent near where the accident occurred. J. H. Love, brother of the dead man, arrived last night from Oklahoma but a son, on his way from Georgia, failed to arrive before his father died. The evangelist never regained consciousness.

Mr. Love was minister of the Church of Christ and had preached for the past 30 years in Texas, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee and other southern states. He left Valdosta several weeks ago to hold religious meetings in Indiana, Illinois and Iowa. His family resides in Valdosta and the body will be sent there for burial.

Stricken Plane
Saved from Crash
By Big Parachute

Los Angeles, August 24.—(AP)—A parachute large enough to bring a stricken airplane safely to the ground was demonstrated here today by R. Carl Oelge, formerly a naval air pilot who staked his life on the success of the invention. At an altitude of 2,500 feet Oelge killed his engine, cut the great parachute folded on top of his plane and let the machine drop.

The plane came down steadily, drifting from Inglewood field, where it took the air, towards El Segundo, and as it neared the ground about three miles from the starting point, began to oscillate. The plane and parachute finally came to rest on a hillside and Oelge hopped out, none the worse for his experience. Only a propeller blade and the running gear of the plane were damaged, due, observers said, to the fact that the descent was made on sloping ground. The parachute, which measures 50 feet in diameter, is the invention of Harry A. Doucet, chief machinist's mate, U. S. N., stationed at the naval air base at North Island, San Diego. A number of naval and army air service officers witnessed the test.

PIGGY WIGGLY STORE
WORKERS WILL PICNIC

Flour and sugar bins will be closed with more than usual vim in Piggly Wiggly stores today when employees of the big chain grocery concern go to Idlewood park at 2 o'clock for their annual picnic at 1 frolie.

Athletic contests and other amusements will be the program and a general good time is the menu for the entire afternoon. The outing will last until 8:30 o'clock tonight. The picnic, held annually, is sponsored by Piggly Wiggly stores to promote good will among employees.

COLONEL CLARK PLANS
NO ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Colonel John W. Clark, state pension commissioner, issued a statement Tuesday in which he declared he would not neglect the duties of his office at this time to make an active campaign for reelection. He said he felt confident the people of Georgia would reflect him as pension commissioner as he is the only Confederate veteran in the race and a precedent was established many years ago that this office should be handled by a veteran of the war between the states.

In this connection, Colonel Clark made public a copy of a letter written him by J. F. Stone, prominent business man and Confederate veteran, of Baxley, in which Mr. Stone called on all Confederate veterans to rally to support of Colonel Clark in this year's election.

"Rest assured I am advising and requesting every voter to vote for you," he wrote. "I think it is a shame to see a man who was not born when you were battling for the southland."

While Fall Enrollment Goes On,
Thirty-Two Southern Business College Students Accept Positions

Prosperity is here and the Business World is calling you. Thirty-two more of the students of the Southern Shorthand & Business University have just responded to the call and are now connected with large and important firms as stenographers, bookkeepers, secretaries, cashiers, etc. These announcements, from time to time, showing that the students are in demand; that they obtain good positions; and HOLD THEM satisfactorily, keep the spacious and handsomely equipped school rooms of the SOUTHERN well filled with worthy and ambitious pupils who know, from the observation of thousands of others, that desirable positions at the end of their training are surely the rewards of diligent and faithful study in this well-known school of 61 years' successful operation.

FALL TERM APPROACHES.

August 30, September 6 and September 13 are the dates for the fall term enrollment and many applications have already been received from those wishing to begin their Business Courses in September.

Write for catalog and application blank right away if you intend to begin with the fall term.

Just now, many young people are selecting their schools. They are measuring the advantages of one against the other and in their thinking they are sometimes led astray by supposed information from irresponsible sources.

The Southern, therefore, deems it in order to state that, being a Business School, it surrounds the students with an atmosphere of Business. It insists on regularity, punctuality, accuracy, discipline, a day's work in a day and a type of accomplishment in every subject that will strengthen the student for the tasks that he will undertake in the business office.

MINIMUM TIME FOR PREPARATION.

The Southern develops stenographers, bookkeepers, accountants, secretaries and general office workers in the shortest time, consistent with thorough preparation, because it employs three times as many teachers of shorthand and bookkeeping as are employed by any other Business School in this section, and teaches the most rapidly written and easily read system of shorthand in existence, as well as the latest improved and most extensively used system of bookkeeping and accounting known.

A SCHOOL OF OPPORTUNITY.

The Southern maintains what it is proud to call a School of Opportunity, because here every student has the chance to make the most of his time

Sims Excoriates
Upshaw Record
At East Point

Upbraiding W. D. Upshaw for his past record and various and sundry reasons in a big rally at the William A. Russell High school in East Point Tuesday night, Mayor "Al" Sims, candidate for congress from the fifth district, continued his bombardment of the present holder of the office.

Mayor Sims was introduced by Ed. L. Humphries. The rally was attended by a large crowd who came through the main street to hear the talk.

"If there is anyone present groping in darkness relative to the paramount issues in this campaign, I want to enlighten them," said Mr. Sims. "Upshaw claims to have rendered his constituents commendable service during the past eight years. What does his record show? The pension bill, the bill to take the land from the hills never left the committee rooms, and we have paid him 10,000 a year for the past eight years for this heroic achievement."

"In seven and one-half years he was called 694 times and failed to answer on 257 occasions. He voted to refund the Italians 50 per cent on their debt. Think of it! He couldn't even get a road closed through the Fort Jessup reservation and a committee from the city council has now been called on to go to Washington to have this done. I do not propose sending city officials to Washington at the expense of our taxpayers to do a congressman's work. He claims I have been using the Georgia Power company band to further my interests. For Mr. Upshaw's information I might say this band was disbanded four months ago and that any band I have used since I do not have with my own funds and have canceled checks to show him."

"What has he done for the farmers? Nothing. His record is one of indifference and inefficiency. He was, however, one of the co-authors of a censorship bill which called for a salary of $10,000 yearly and retirement after two years with a pension of $5,000. His contention about securing free mail delivery for East Point is misleading, as this was done in 1879 by an act of congress."

Referring to his other opponent, Mr. Steele, the mayor declared that "Steele entered the race just to slow me up. Two years ago Steele deserted and left us flat. He is trading counties right now with Upshaw. Well, my friends, let the Gold Dust Twins cavort but this is no time for Doubting Thomases."

Saturday, Aug. 28, $3.50

Mr. McGardy suggested that the convention start a "Berry for vice president" movement here at Pressmen's Home.

Mr. Berry, in response, discussed his "political availability," citing his record for executive office, which showed him "available" every 10 years, for that the last time was was "available" Governor Bryan defeated him by three votes.

MAD KITTEN BITES
RICHLAND WOMAN
AND GRANDCHILD

Richland, Ga., August 24.—(AP)—Mrs. Fannie Alston, of Richland, and her little granddaughter, Catherine Howell, of Arlington, are victims of bites from a kitten suffering with hydrophobia, and are taking treatments against any possible dangers from the bites.

The kitten bit the little girl, but nothing unusual was thought of the matter until yesterday, when it also attacked Mrs. Alston.

The kitten was killed and the head sent to the state board of health at Atlanta, where examination was made and positive evidence of hydrophobia was found. The state board telegraphed a local physician of its decision and treatment was mailed from Atlanta immediately to protect the victims against possibilities of hydrophobia.

LAST HONORS PAID TO HERMAN HARJES,
AMERICAN BANKER

Paris, August 24.—(AP)—The funeral here today of H. Herman Harjes, the American banker and sportsman, was a remarkable tribute to the man. Rarely has a foreigner received in France the last honors that were accorded the partner of the Morgan banking firm who had a very wide social acquaintance in addition to his many business friends.

Heaped on his coffin were wreaths of the most costly hothouse flowers, remembrances from banking houses the world over and mingled with them were the clusters of garden blossoms brought by the servants on his country.

The social world of Paris was represented at the funeral in the American pro-cathedral.

Every Dining Car
Meal is Served at a Loss to the Railroads

Few, if any, railroads in this country fail to suffer a substantial loss in providing dining-car service for their patrons, in order that they may save time in travel and be afforded every comfort. During the year 1925, the L. & N. served 615,238 meals, at an actual loss of $195,103.00, or an average of 32 cents each meal. Here are the figures: Expenses—wages, provisions, repairs, etc., $907,900; Revenues from meals, cigars, etc. served, $712,797; Net loss, $195,103.

Each meal, therefore, cost our patrons on an average of only $1.16, or practically the same as they would pay in any first-class hotel or restaurant; yet it cost this Company $1.48 to produce and serve it.

These figures do not include interest on the investment in dining cars, which, fully equipped with linen, china, kitchenware, etc., cost about $52,000 each.

"The Old Reliable" has earned a reputation for the consistent superiority of its dining-car service and the fairness of its prices.

Is Becoming Warmer

Lawrenceville, Ga., August 24.—(Special).—Thomas M. Bell, candidate for reelection to congress from the ninth district, spoke at Lawrenceville Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Bell is being opposed for this office by Herman P. DeLaPerriere, of Hoescht, and Joseph G. Collins, of Gainesville.

Mr. Collins is slated to address the voters here Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. DeLaPerriere will address the voters at a later date at Lawrenceville. Music will be furnished by bands and large audiences are expected to turn out for the occasion as the political situation is beginning to warm up in this district.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY FOR DAN R. MCUNE

Funeral services for Dan R. McCune, 40, of Mill avenue, who died Tuesday morning at a private hospital, will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from the Elam Baptist church, Forest Park. Mr. McCune was injured Monday when he fell 25 feet from a telephone pole on which he was working with linemen on Sixth street, opposite the Biltmore hotel.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Eloise; three sons, Edward, Bobbie and Willie McCune; his father, G. W. McCune, of Panthersville; three sisters, Mrs. B. F. Ford, of Panthersville; Mrs. Cordelia Dease, of Rex, and Miss Grace McCune, of Panthersville; and a brother, C. F. McCune, of Panthersville. H. M. Patterson & Son in charge.

LAST RITES THURSDAY FOR SENATOR FERNALD

West Poland, Maine, August 24.—(AP)—Masses of sympathy and tender tributes to his personal qualities, as well as his service to the nation and state, poured in today as final arrangements were being made for a simple funeral service Thursday for United States Senator Bert M. Fernald, who died late yesterday.

These included telegrams from President Coolidge, Vice President Dawes, Attorney General John G. Sargent, former-governors of Maine, associates in the senate and many others. Complimenting the senator's often expressed wish, the service will be very brief. It will be held at 1 o'clock, standard time, in the little country church, of which he was a member, a few hundred yards from his home on the farm, held by four generations of the family, which he attended regularly when here.

Meeting Boosts Campaign For Tallulah School Fund

New impetus was given the movement now under way to create a scholarship endowment fund of $30,000 to Tallulah Falls Industrial school when a large and representative group of friends of the school assembled Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the new athletic club at the call of Mrs. T. T. Stevens. They discussed plans for completing the fund in time to aid the mountain children in whose behalf the school is owned and maintained, and to honor Mrs. John K. Otley, for whom the scholarship endowment fund is to be named.

With one-third of the proposed $30,000 fund already subscribed and interest in the movement increasing steadily the committee is enthusiastic over the outlook. The keynote of the meeting was sounded by Mrs. Stevens when she said:

"The hearty response that has greeted our efforts since the plan for the Passie Fenton Otley scholarship endowment fund was initiated three weeks ago convinces us that the cause of Tallulah Falls school is very close to the people of Georgia and definitely in the consciousness of all Atlanta."

Fund Grows Fast.
"In the beginning of this new movement the committee felt that it might require several months to raise $30,000, but so generous has been the response to our appeal that already one-third of the amount has been pledged. And now we are renewing our efforts with the hope that the entire fund will have been completed before the board of trustees of the school meets here in October."

As chairman of the central control committee of trustees charged with directing the movement Mrs. Stevens related briefly how the school has been brought to its present splendid physical proportions and then emphasized the necessity of insuring the financial permanence of the school.

A resolution offered by Mrs. Thorne-Jacob, expressing appreciation for the work already accomplished by the trustees of the school, the clubwomen and the people at large, and endorsing the movement now in progress to create the new endowment fund was unanimously adopted.

The plan of the committee embraces three features—endowment life insurance with the school as beneficiary, direct gifts, and the staging of a big fashion revue in the city auditorium on September 14, the entire proceeds of which will go clear to the fund.

Plans for Revue.
It is expected that the fashion revue and dance will add $5,000 to the fund. With M. Rich & Brothers Company sponsoring the event and paying all expenses, with J. Morton giving his services as director, and Enrico Letts contributing his services as musical director and conductor, with the auditorium committee of the city of Atlanta giving use of the auditorium without charge and with more than 100 Atlanta social favorites and celebrities participating in the event there is every reason to believe that it will net no less than $5,000 to the fund.

J. Prince Webster spoke in glowing terms of the splendid work the school is doing and presented the committee a check for $100 in behalf of himself and his wife, and pledged himself to double that amount provided 25 people would give $100 each to the fund.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY FOR G. H. BOYNTON, SR.

Funeral services for George H. Boynton, Sr., Atlanta capitalist and former member of city council, who died Monday at his home, 2000 Peachtree road, will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from the home. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

Mr. Boynton, a native Atlantan, was a member of a distinguished Georgia family and had been closely connected with the city's development for many years. He was a graduate of Boys' High school and Princeton university. During recent years his interests have centered largely in management of his real estate holdings.

Mr. Boynton's father, the late Charles E. Boynton, came to Atlanta in 1898 from Lumpkin county and was one of the founders of the Chamberlin-Johnson-Boynton company, predecessor of the Chamberlin-Johnson-Dubose company. Mr. Boynton was actively identified with the Trinity Methodist church.

ACCUSED DRY AGENT WILL BE TRIED HERE

Grady Cobb, federal dry agent, charged with assault with intent to murder in a shooting affray near West Point, Ga., in July of 1924, will be tried in this district federal court September 1, according to District Attorney Clint W. Hager.

Agent Cobb and three other dry officers are named in a Troup county indictment charging assault with intent to murder Buck Hamby, West Point youth, who was wounded in the gun battle.

The agents mistook the automobile in which Hamby was riding for that of a whisky runner, Cobb testified, and the others thought the officers were hold-up men. The other West Point boys, Frank Jones and Roy Williams, were riding in the car with Hamby.

Child Is Burned To Death In Barn He Set On Fire

Athens, Ga., August 24.—Death by fire of the small child of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sanders, of Neese, was reported in Athens Tuesday.

The little boy, aged 2-1/2 years, set fire to a bale of straw in his father's barn and before he could be rescued was burned to death.

The mother noticed the smoke and flames, but could not reach the child before he was injured beyond recovery. He was a grandson of William Sanders.

Mr. Sanders' barn was destroyed by the fire as were several hundred bushels of oats and wheat and several head of live stock.

BOY IS STUNNED AS BIKE SWERVES INTO PARKED CAR

Charlie Bratcher, 14, who lives on Savannah street, was knocked unconscious when the bicycle he was riding along East Fair street struck an automobile at Berens avenue.

The automobile, according to information given to Fran Trammell, Grady hospital ambulance driver, was standing still at the time of the accident. It belonged to Mrs. C. E. Dempsey, of 560 Hill street, and had been parked by her son, T. L. Dempsey, less than two minutes before the crash, the reports indicated.

Dempsey told Trammell that the wheels of the boy's bicycle had perhaps skidded on the wet street car rail, causing the bike to swerve and strike the automobile. Dempsey, with J. B. Campbell, of 648 Woodward avenue, picked the injured youth up and brought him to the Grady hospital. The boy had a wound on the left side of his head, necessitating several stitches.

MENU TO BENEFIT TEETH IS SOUGHT BY VIENNA DOCTOR

Philadelphia, August 24.—(P)—Experiments in dieting as a means of eliminating tooth decay were explained to the international dental congress today by Dr. Bernard Gottlieb, of Vienna, Austria. He said that within five or ten years, it may be possible to stop decaying of teeth by eating certain foods.

"We have found," he said, "that weight-giving food which builds up the body tissues does not feed teeth, and we have been working to isolate foods which will directly feed the teeth."

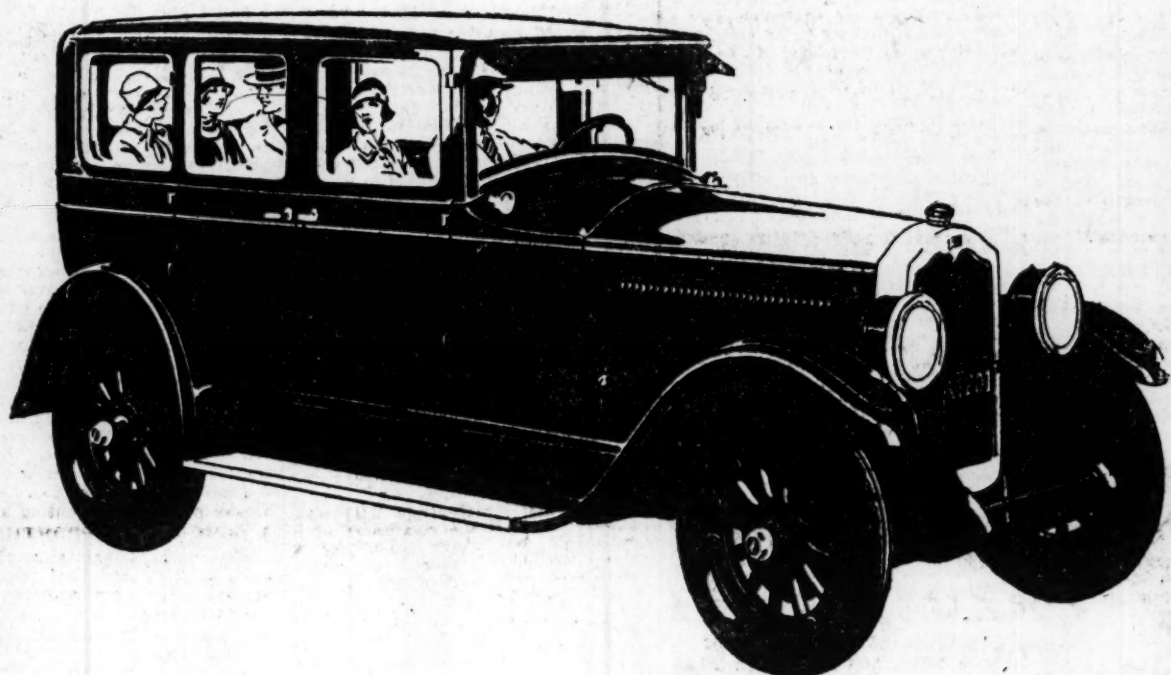

Building Material Dealers Protest Union Pay Measure

Another protest, in the form of resolutions, has been made against the ordinance passed recently by city council providing for a union scale of wages for city employees and private employees on contract work for the city. At a meeting of the building material dealers of Atlanta resolutions opposing the ordinance and demanding reconsideration of the measure were passed.

Copies of the resolutions will be forwarded to Mayor Walter A. Sims and general council, according to Eugene B. Kempf, secretary of the group. It is pointed out in the resolutions that the courts of Wisconsin and Pennsylvania and the United States supreme court have ruled similar legislation illegal and unconstitutional and cooperation of the dealers is pledged to fight the measure in case council refuses to reconsider its action. Councilmen Crane, Russell and Faith were commended for their fight against the measure.

WHITE AS COTTON
FACE NOW RUDDY

Says Mrs. Wolcott—All the Terrible Aches, Pains and Sour Bile Sickness Gone

Like many other folks thereabouts, Mrs. Wolcott was a picture of misery. She says, "I was ghastly white as cotton, all thinned out, bilious all the time, terrible headaches, bones creaked as if they would snap apart, ached all over, could hardly walk or lift an arm; had been taking calomel steadily, and it made me so deathly sick I was completely discouraged. Then one day my cousin who lives near the state line came on a visit and she had a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. My! what a change. It gave me new courage. We sent to town for two bottles, and since then my face is filled out, with a ruddy glow. Gained over twenty pounds and am the picture of health. Whenever I feel bilious or constipated I take a dose of Dodson's Liver Tonic and it works just fine."

This wonderful liver tonic is sold by all druggists and is absolutely guaranteed to start your liver without making you sick. Get a bottle today, and when you feel sick, bilious, sluggish, constipated, with dull headache, Dodson's Liver Tonic will put you to rights every time. Try it today.—(adv.)

BROWN BETRAYAL LAID TO HOLDER

Monticello, Ga., August 24.—The direct charge that John N. Holder is preparing to betray J. H. Brown and throw him overboard in order to save himself if possible in his race for governor, was made here this afternoon by George H. Carswell in his speech to the voters of Jasper county.

"We believed it was coming, but it seemed incredible," said Mr. Carswell. "It was predicted last week that John Holder would throw overboard Mr. Brown. Now we have this week's issue of the paper published by our old friend Thomas W. Hardwick down yonder in Dublin in which Mr. Hardwick paves the way for this latest evidence of Mr. Holder's ability to double-cross anybody whenever it suits his purpose.

"Listen to what Tom Hardwick says in his paper this week: 'Holder is neither for nor against Brown or any other candidate for commission of agriculture or any other office. Holder is saving wood and saying nothing. Holder is toting his own skillet. He is hoing his own row. He has made no combinations or alliances with any faction or any candidate. We are sure that is already perfectly plain to the people of Georgia, and we believe that Holder will make it even plainer before the primary. Holder is not hanging to

Palmer Clothing Company Opens Big Store Thursday

W. M. PALMER

C. E. KESTER.

C. E. Kester, associated with a prominent Atlanta clothing store for the past two years, has been named manager of the Atlanta store of the Palmer Clothing Manufacturing company, which opens Thursday. This well-known manufacturer of men's clothing operating retail stores in several southern cities, has taken a long lease on a store in the Palmer building, at 39 Marietta street.

"I have been in the men's clothing business for the past 15 years," said Mr. Kester, "with prominent concerns. And I have no hesitancy in saying that I believe Palmer—a distinctly southern organization—has made more rapid strides in the past year and has a more brilliant future than any other men's clothing manufacturer selling direct from factory to wearer.

"The chain store, cash and carry system of selling men's clothes—which we will introduce to Atlanta on a big scale, represents an enormous saving to the consumer. The Palmer Clothing Manufacturing company's big buying power, its one-price policy, its corps of experienced workmen—all these factors combine to bring good clothes into the hands of ing vital admissions in solving the case.

Although he admits having given her medicines and pills of a variety found on her person when she was brought to the hospital, he admitted them, Balanescu said, "only to make her well and not to kill her."

Balanescu, 21-year-old Frenchman, said he once studied medicine in Paris, later became an assistant pharmacist, and then took up the study of medicine here at Western Reserve university, while employed at a drug store.

He called Dorothy his sweetheart, and told a pathetic story of the "morbid spells" that came over her and threw her into fits of depression.

Denies Knowledge of Drugs.

It was during these times of depression that he gave Miss Kirk medicines, Balanescu said, but he denied any knowledge of drugs or poisons that she may have taken.

Mrs. Anna Balanescu, mother of the youth, came to his support today when police confronted him with discovery of three bushel baskets of medicines and pills found in his room.

These, she claimed, were her own property and had been prescribed by physicians at Lakeside hospital, where she was under treatment for a chronic ailment.

Romance Starts at Church.

The romance between Balanescu and Miss Kirk began at a church service seven months ago. For five months the young man had been courting Miss Kirk, taking her to church and to the theater.

From this point detectives are attempting to unravel the weird story. One of the theories advanced by police tonight was that the girl, innocent of the result of the drug habit, unconsciously had become the victim of an experiment with narcotics.

Balanescu is alleged to have told the girl he was a physician.

When he took the girl to the hospital a few hours before her death Sunday she was unconscious and attendants were unable to revive her.

ERMIL BALANESCU IS FRENCH BOY.

Cleveland, Ohio, August 24.—Ermil Balanescu, bright-eyed French boy believed to have killed his sweetheart with "love pills," presented police here tonight with an unprecedented problem in criminology.

Dorothy Kirk, his unintended victim, died at a hospital last Sunday, apparently from poisoning. Yet no violent poison was found by examination of her vital organs. Instead, physicians found a complex mixture of opiates and hypnotics.

Balanescu has admitted giving her "love potions to make her gay." It was to dispel a fit of depression that the last dose was administered, Balanescu told police. The fatal illness followed.

If that last dose of pills killed Dorothy, as police believe, is Balanescu a murderer? Investigators agree that he did not intend to do her harm. Psychologists will probably be called in to help solve the problem.

Balanescu went convulsively in his cell at the city jail tonight, not, he said, for his own predicament so much as for the death of his sweetheart.

"I loved her and she loved me," he sobbed. "I tried to help her, not harm her. I gave her love pills when she was depressed to make her love me more and to make her happy."

Meanwhile at an undertaking parlor a heart-broken mother, Mrs. Mae Kirk, from Canal Fulton, a little Ohio town, was arranging for Dorothy's burial. Her body will be taken back to the home she left six years ago in search of adventure and romance.

CANDIDATES SPEAK TO CUMMING VOTERS

Cumming, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—United States Senator George, Judge Alexander Stephens and J. J. Brown, commissioners of agriculture, today addressed the citizens of Cumming and Forsyth counties here.

The candidates' speeches were along lines they have followed in other sections of the state in their campaigns and were heard by a large crowd.

Amusements

West End Theater.

Playing to run of today only, the Rod LaRoque success, "Night Life in New York," is slated to be one of the most popular pictures to grace the West End theater screen in many weeks. It is a picture constructed as only Rod can make, with a sufficient supply of comedy, pathos and drama and whole trainloads of entertainment. Rod LaRoque is supported by one of the most capable casts that he has ever been starred with.

The Tudor.

"The Sea Wolf," an adaptation of the Jack London novel of the same name, is the story of Wolf Larsen, captain of the ship The Ghost, a brutal sea captain who ruled his men with the might of his fist, who could kill a man with one blow, who had the brain of a genius, but was half mad. Starred in the picture is Ralph Ince, and featured with him are Claire Adams and Theodore von Eltz.

The Rialto.

"The Runaway," William de Mille's newest production, which is at the Rialto theater this week, marks the 42nd picture he has directed for Paramount since he entered pictures 12 years ago.

Clara Bow, Warner Baxter, George Bancroft and William Powell are the featured players in "The Runaway," a story laid in the Kentucky mountains.

The Howard Theater.

In "Fine Manners," which is playing at the Howard theater this week, Gloria Swanson, accompanied by Eugene O'Brien, presents a real live flea circus. A flea circus is something that has never been seen upon the silver sheet before, and in fact, something that has seldom been seen anywhere. One of the prettiest numbers in John Murray Anderson's presentation, "The Dance of Joy," this week's stage attraction, is the mirror dance by the Irwin twins, Patsy and Billie.

Loew's Grand.

Billy "Uke" Carpenter is the outstanding star of "Town Topics," Alex Gerber's latest review, which is the head-line attraction at Loew's Grand theater this week. Sharing honors with the headliner are Billy Norton and George Brower in their skit, "Roughhouse Fables." Other popular acts on the bill are Warren Green, the Oretos and the Balas Trio. The Loew picture is "The Brown Derby," with Johnny Hines.

The Metropolitan.

Douglas Fairbanks may be said to have made the best of the glamorous, stirring story of "The Black Pirate," which is being shown to capacity audiences at the Metropolitan theater this week. "The Black Pirate" sails along in the romantic course of the favored tales of fighting buccanniers and buried treasures. Enrico Leide and his Metropolitan orchestra and a novelty motion picture of the Alps in Switzerland complete the program.

Coming to Metropolitan.

Vienna Banky, the "Hungarian Rhapsody" of the screen, is once more appearing opposite Rudolph Valentino in "The Son of the Sheik," his new starring picture, which comes to the Metropolitan theater next week. Under direction of George Fitzmaurice, Miss Banky appears as Yasmin, a desert dancer.

DORMITORY PROVIDED AT NORMAN INSTITUTE

Norman Park, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—In preparation for what is expected to be the largest attendance in its history, Norman Institute and Norman Junior college has provided a new home with necessary equipment for the housing of 20 smaller boys.

The college, through President Browning, has bought the home of James Norman near the campus and has had it remodeled throughout. A member of the faculty will be headmaster. All the dormitories in the college have been repainted and improved for the coming year.

The high school department of Norman Institute is an accredited school and progress during the past two years in the junior college leads to the belief it will be placed soon on the list of southern accredited schools. The school's endowment has been increased to $136,000 and the faculty has been increased from 12 to 25 during the past five years.

Frank Murphy Signs To Meet Touchstone At City Auditorium

Veteran Will Try Comeback Before Atlanta Fans in Battle With Florida Boy—Promoter Will Go Before Fight Board Today.

Frankie Murphy, former popular idol of Atlanta fight fans, will attempt a comeback here Tuesday night, September 7, provided the official approval of the city boxing commission is forthcoming. This announcement by Herbert Watson, matchmaker for the Gate City A. C., was made Tuesday afternoon.

Benny Touchstone, husky young Missian, who has made a name for himself in recent months, has been chosen as the trial horse for the veteran mid-flewight.

To See Commission.
Mr. Watson stated that he would see the members of the commission some time Wednesday for their official O. K., and that he expected no difficulty in getting a permit.

He plans to hold the bout in the city auditorium, which, despite the uncomfortable weather that may prevail that night, will be cool and comfortable inside the playhouse.

The matchmaker's announcement that he has signed this pair was joyfully received in Atlanta sporting circles. Fans of the city remember the smashing victory of Frankie Murphy on his previous stay here when he defeated Johnny Celmar twice; Battling Bill Bailey, Johnny Newton and a couple of other good boys. In his appearances here Murphy was undefeated, and when he left he promised to return some time when Atlanta has raised another crop of star fighters.

A Good Opponent.
In Benny Touchstone, Watson believes he could not have selected a better man for Murphy at this time. Touchstone has whipped Ernie Perrin and K. O. Duran in his two efforts before Atlanta fans and in addition has made impressive showings in New York rings. He is under the management of "Pa" Stripling, and is the chief sparring partner of Young Stripling when the famous son of swat trains for his big matches.

PIRATES SWAMP DOGERS.

Pittsburgh, August 24.—Behind the steady pitching of Ray Kremer, Pittsburgh subdued Brooklyn, 10 to 0 today. The Pirates collected 13 hits off four opposing pitchers, while Kremer yielded but five hits. Brooklyn's offense was touched for five runs in the third inning and retired under fire in the fifth run rally in the succeeding frame.

REDS MORE OUT GIANTS.

Cincinnati, August 24.—Cincinnati made it two straight from New York by winning today's game, 4 to 1, principally through timely hitting. Luque allowed nine hits while Scott gave only six. McDougall shifted his lineup by sending Ott to left field, Kelly to second and Terry to first base.

Spiller May Sell Good To Texas League Club

Wilbur Good, aged but spry Cracker outfielder, will probably leave today for San Antonio to strengthen that club in its battle for supremacy in the Texas league this year. R. J. Spiller, Cracker president, announced Tuesday that the San Antonio club had made a bid for Uncle Wilbur's services.

San Antonio, Dallas and Fort Worth are having a merry battle of it out in Texas, and with the addition of Good, the San Antonio club will be in a position to make the battle harder, and give the other team's outfielders plenty of roadwork when Wilbur starts socking the ball.

President Spiller has taken the matter up with Bert Niehoff over long distance at Memphis and it is practically certain that "Uncle" Wilbur will leave Memphis today to join the Texas team, injury to a San Antonio player caused the request for Good and Mr. Spiller is willing to part with him, now that the Cracker are definitely out of the pennant race. Boss Niehoff will most likely feel the same way.

Uncle Wilbur has not been setting as fast a pace as he did last year in the Southern league, but the change will probably help him regain his old form, and so the San Antonio bosses feel that he is the man for the place. If the old-timer joins the Texas team, it is doubtful if he will be permitted to play in this year's Dixie series.

San Antonio was leading the league by one point, according to last Saturday's statistics. Dallas is next in order, and Fort Worth is in third berth, 47 points behind Dallas.

NO DECISION REACHED BY MANAGER NIEHOFF.

Memphis, Tenn., August 24.—(P)—

American Open May Be Played At Oakmont Club

New York, August 24.—(P)—Bob Jones probably will defend his American open golf title next year at the Oakmont Country club, near Pittsburgh. Selection of this course has not yet received official sanction but the United States Golf association is understood to favor it, instead of the Winged Foot club, Mamaroneck, also a bidder for the tourney.

Negotiations are under way, it was learned tonight, which may terminate in the transfer of Wilbur Good, heavy hitting Atlanta outfielder, to the San Antonio club of the Texas league, now in a hot fight with Dallas for the Texas league pennant.

Bert Niehoff, manager of the Atlanta club, explained that, while negotiations are under discussion, no conclusion had been reached. Good finished last season among the "big five" of the Southern association hitters. His batting percentage for this season is .309.

President Green Makes Decision

Montgomery, Ala., August 24.—(P)—President Cliff Green, of the Southern league, today announced that Savannah and Jacksonville will play a doubleheader at Savannah tomorrow. "This agreement eliminates penalizing the Savannah team in their recent game with Jacksonville," he said.

Cracker Clan Opens With Travelers Today For Four-Game Series

Memphis, Tenn., August 24.—(Special)—Bert Niehoff and his Cracker left here tonight for Little Rock without having played the fourth and final game of the series with the Chicks. A continuous rain all day caused the postponement of the game at 3 o'clock. The Cracker left with the larger division of the spoils, by taking the first two games. The game will go down as unfinished business this season as the Chicks and Cracker do not have an off day on the same day.

Final Game With Chicks Rained Out—Crackers Make Last Appearance on Foreign Soil—Back Here September 7.

The Cracker will stop over in Little Rock for a four-game series with the Travelers before journeying over to Pelicanville to play the New Orleans outfit a three-game series. From there they will go to Birmingham for a three-game series with the Barons. They will finish their road trip in Mobile with a three-game series with the Bears. They have a doubleheader scheduled for the last day in Mobile.

This is the Cracker's last road trip of the 1926 Southern league season. They are back on their own stamping ground September 7 with a two-game set to with the Barons.

City-Wide Interest Shown In Constitution Water Meet

Many Stars Expected To Enter Contests At Piedmont Lake

Many Entries Already Received For Gigantic Water Carnival to Be Held in September—Elimination Contests Set For 3rd and 4th of Next Month.

With the entry list steadily growing and the swimming course at Piedmont park rapidly nearing completion, interest in The Constitution swimming meet is beginning to reach the point where it threatens to break all bounds.

In addition to the score of entries already in the office of The Constitution, many other swimmers have called the office and signified their intention of entering the big meet as soon as they can fill out blanks and mail them.

Final Course Today. If weather conditions do not interfere the course at Piedmont will be finished today and swimmers who have signified their intention of entering the meet will be privileged to practice over the course.

Knowing that many entrants will wish to practice the various required dives in the spring board event, The Constitution is printing a series of pictures of Bill Murray, champion diver of the Atlanta Athletic club team, in action.

The first of the series, shown on this page, pictures the four main stages of the plain front or swan dive. If amateur divers will study these pictures they will be able to glean much valuable information.

Events for Entrants. There has been some question raised regarding the number of events which must be entered by any participant. There are no rules regarding this and any entrant may elect to participate in any or all of the events scheduled for his or her class.

To those who are planning to enter the contest a word of caution might not be amiss. A closing date on entries will be necessary several days prior to the elimination contests, which will be held on September 3 and 4, in order that the officials in charge of the meet can arrange the entries as to heats and classes and announce the times of the various events. This closing date has not yet been decided upon, however, but will probably be set for Wednesday, September 1.

An entry blank and list of events will be found on this page for the convenience of those who wish to enter the contests. Further pictures of the required dives will be printed in future issues.

Halverstadt Returns Home With Net Cup

James Halverstadt, youthful Atlanta net star, has just returned from Lakeside, Ohio, where he won the junior trophy in the annual tennis tournament held there August 13 to 20. Halverstadt took his final match from Bobby Rhorer, of Fremont, Ohio, having little trouble in disposing of him, 6-3, 6-3. The Atlanta boy had his hardest match in the semi-finals when he defeated Andrew Lindsey, of Youngstown, Ohio, 8-6, 1-1.

Halverstadt was on his way home from the national tournament at Chicago, stopping over in Lakeside for the tournament. He will probably enter the junior division of the state tournament which will be held at East Lake next week.

PIRATE CLAN REGAINS LEAD IN NATIONAL

Pittsburgh has regained the lead in the National League, but the Pirates' advantage over the Reds and Cardinals is a slender one.

The standing of the three leaders Tuesday night was:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	67	45	.598
Cincinnati	70	51	.578
St. Louis	70	51	.578

With Ray Kremer holding the Robins to five hits, the world's champions had little difficulty in winning, 10 to 1. As St. Louis broke even in a double-header with the Braves, the Cards dropped back to a tie for second place with the Reds, who defeated the Giants, 4-3.

The fourth place Cubs walloped the Phillies, 9 to 4 and 9 to 0. In the second game, Hack Wilson hit a homer and Hartnett two. Root and Baker pitched well for the winners.

Benton held the Cardinals to four hits in the first game, and beat them, 2 to 1. In the second, P. Smith had the game in hand until the Cards drove him from the box in the eighth and won out, 6 to 5.

Rain washed out all the American League games except that in which the Senators beat the Browns, 9 to 6.

Crusader Wins With Sande Up

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., August 24. (P)—Crusader, an 11-to-20 favorite, with Jockey Earl Sande up, annexed the 24th running of the $5,000 Huron handicap for three-year-olds, the banner attraction at the Spa track today. Close on the heels of the Glen Riddle farm entry was Epping, owned by W. Z. Starnes, Jr., with W. R. Coe's Black Maria, third. The time for the mile and three-sixteenths was 1:59 3-5.

THE "SWAN" DIVE AS DONE BY BILL MURRAY

HAWK-EYEING SPORTS

BY DICK HAWKINS

Alpinism
As we glanced through the pictorial section of our New York Herald-Tribune today we looked upon the face of Captain L. O. Moseley, the man who makes the lives of Constitution reporters miserable from his place on the city desk.

Now, we would expect to see the photo of "Mose" in any one of the great sporting magazines, accompanied by some such declaration as "The best bird hunter in the south." But no such line was to be seen under the picture of our demon editor.

No—this time "Mose" stepped forth in the "land of the sky" and went "Alpinism" with a will with the result that he set a record for scaling Chimney Rock. He established a mark of 23 minutes and 32 seconds in his climb up the treacherous cliff.

Since "Mose" came with The Constitution several years ago he has been steadily climbing, not only in his work, but in the esteem of his legion of friends. Now we are glad that his "upward and onward" propensity has been rewarded even if it did take a Santa Claus stunt on Chimney Rock to do the trick.

"Isaac Walton Jones"
They say that golf develops a keen eye for distance. We are willing to believe this assertion after talking with our friend, A. R. Slade, about the success of Robert Tyre Jones as a bass fisherman.

The great Bobby, as all kings are likely to do, forgot his crown for a day and went a-fishing at Black Rock lake. And unlike most kings, Bobby succeeded in snaring many a crafty bass with his casting outfit.

Now to our point—as all good fishermen know, the bass is a very aloof gentleman and demands that his bait be served "where he is at." Mr. Slade, who is a fisherman of no mean ability himself, declares that Bobby can cast a "plug" into the front parlor of any bass in the world providing the "monarch of golf" is within casting distance of said locality. That is what we call an eye for distance according to Hoyle, Isaac Walton or any other authority on any sport from fishing to pinochle.

Incidentally, we have watched Bobby perform on the green table in the billiard room at the Atlanta Athletic club and we have yet to find any sport either indoor or outdoor at which he is not adept. We will bet Bobby would be world's champion polo player in three weeks if he were given a rocking horse and a croquet mallet.

MRS. WRIGHT WINS TITLE IN TRAP SHOOT

Vandalia, Ohio, August 24. (P)—Four shoot-offs and the flip of a coin were necessary to decide the three winners in the amateur clay target championship of North America after five entrants in the grand American handicap tournament had tied for first place with 100 targets each today.

S. L. Jenny, of Highlands, Ill., was crowned champion; E. F. Woodard, Houston, Texas, finished second; W. G. Warren, Chicago, third; E. J. Smith, Aberdeen, S. D., and D. M. Hudson, Hammond, Ind., were eliminated.

Mrs. Wright Wins
Mrs. J. C. Wright, of Atlanta, Ga., became the new women's champion, replacing Miss Gladys Reid, of Portland, Ore., who did not defend her title. She broke 190. Mrs. Harvey Harrison, Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Bessie Gleaves, Wytheville, Va., were runners-up, tied with 188, but Miss Gleaves won second place 23-22 in the shoot-off.

Jimmy Bonner, 17, of New York City, successfully defended his junior championship title, won last year, when he tied with Adolph Weer, Edwardsville, Ill., with 97 each and won the shoot-off, 25-24.

Shoot-offs in the class championships also were held today. Jean Pope, East Moline, Ill., who tied with Henry Pendergast, Buffalo, and D. R. Saxe, Mechanicsburg, Ohio, with 199 each, in class A, took first in the shoot-off. A similar three-man tie, with 199 targets each, in class B, was settled when R. T. Maugans, Miami, Fla., won over H. Statler, Piqua, Ohio, and F. W. Young, Indianapolis.

Mitchell Ordered To Defend Title
Milwaukee, Wis., August 24. (P)—Pinkey Mitchell, junior welterweight champion, has been ordered to defend his title before October 1 by the state boxing commission, or forfeit the belt which he holds, emblematic of the title, to the commission.

BLACK ROCK CLUB TOURNEY LAST OF WEEK

Saturday, September 4, will witness the first championship play over the beautiful Black Rock Country club course and no less person than Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., will drive the first ball on that day.

A "graveyard" tournament will be played this Saturday and from the players in this preliminary contest will be picked the best 36 gross scores as entrants in the club championship play next week.

Several valuable trophies in addition to the championship cup will be offered to winners of the lower flights, according to A. R. Slade, manager of the club, and he announces that this first tournament has been thrown open to any golfer in the city whether he is a member of the club or not.

Mr. Slade announced that the officials of the club are anxious to have golfers of the city play the sporty 18-hole course at Black Rock and with this in view all golfers are invited to participate. It is not the object to confine this tournament to expert golfers and for this reason the "graveyard" tournament will be held Saturday of this week in order to place handicaps for the regular tournament which is to start on September 4.

The first round of the club championship tourney will be played on Saturday the fourth and other rounds will have to be completed during the following week. Bobby Jones will play the course during the first round matches but of course he will not enter the tourney.

Harold Wins Game.
A new Cub first baseman, by the name of Harold, won the game in the final inning. A triple by Westmoreland and a single by Ridley had given Nashville a run in the seventh inning. In the eighth Atlanta tied the score when Daniels singled and scored on a double by Murden.

Then Harold came up in the ninth after Moore and Graham had both connected for singles. Pitcher Bell put a nice one across the plate and Harold socked it out for a double, and Moore galloped home with the winning run.

The locals' hitting attack was led by Graham with two singles and Murden and Harold with a two-bagger each. No Nashville player was able to touch Daniels for more than one hit.

Lefty Henderson will go on the mound for the locals today in an attempt to make it two in a row. Score by innings: R. H. E. Nashville 000 000 100-1 8 0 Atlanta 000 001 011-2 9 0 Batteries: Bell and West; Daniels and Williams. Umpires, Shaw and Gentry.

Quaker City Slams Sunday Ball Games
Philadelphia, August 24. (P)—Sunday professional baseball was called a "breach of the peace" and a "disturbance" by the city today in its answer to the Philadelphia American league baseball club's petition for a permanent injunction to prevent police interference with games on the Sabbath.

The city's answer, signed by Mayor Kendrick, was filed in common pleas court where Judge Frank Smith last Saturday granted a temporary injunction following the first Sunday game to be played here the following day between the Athletics and the Chicago White Sox.

Mike Gazella Looms As World Series Star

New York, August 24. (Special.)—The Yankee infield is the weak spot in Miller Huggins' machine, but just at the crucial moment the crafty little manager has inserted new life into the combination where it was needed most.

Putting Mike Gazella, former player of the Atlanta Crackers, in Mark Koenig's place at shortstop for the important Cleveland series has proved invaluable. It was like inserting a new spark plug just when the engine had begun to sputter.

Atlanta Cubs Beat Giants In Close Game
Lefty Daniels, Atlanta Cub hurling ace, had his rabbit's foot tucked securely away in his pocket Tuesday afternoon, and held the Nashville Black Giants to eight scattered hits, enabling the Cubs to win their first game in last five starts, by a score of 2 to 1.

The Cub flinger was in good form, whiffing four of the visitors best batsmen, and keeping the whole team well in hand throughout the game. Bell, who was on the mound for the Tennessee team, was also tight with his hits and managed to pull through the pinches until the last two innings, when the home team staged a rally and won the game.

In a world's series, against a team of the speed and caliber of the Pittsburgh Pirates, for instance, a weakness in the infield is almost fatal. This was amply demonstrated last year when Roger Peckinpaugh practically booted away the series all by himself.

Tony Lazzeri, the second baseman, and Lou Gehrig at first looked like a different pair of ball players once Gazella got going in Koenig's place, and showed that they are capable of playing world's series baseball if in the proper mood.

Plans To Match Carpenter, Delaney
Vancouver, B. C., August 24. (P)—Tex O'Rourke, manager of Georges Carpentier, announced last night that negotiations have been started for a title bout between the French fighter and Jack Delaney, light heavyweight champion of the world.

STATE TENNIS TOURNEY HERE NEXT WEEK

With the opening date of the Georgia state tennis tourney drawing near, several stars have entered the lists and will be ready for play on the East Lake courts next Monday afternoon. A number of local stars have entered the tournament and are expected to furnish stiff opposition to other entrants from over the state.

Among the local entrants are Jack Mooney, twice cotton states champion; Jack Simpson, present holder of the city title; Kels Holand, tri-state champion; Harry Gault, Malon Courts, and such old hands at the game as Edson Mansfield, Nat Thornton and Ed Carter.

Many Stars Entered.

With such a galaxy of local stars and prominent players from towns throughout the state, including Rome, Savannah, Augusta, Macon and Albany, Hop Owens, present champion, will be pushed to come out victorious this year. He has been working hard for the past few weeks, however, and is ready to put up some stiff opposition.

One of the most formidable entrants is John Temple Graves II, of Washington, D. C. Graves defeated Owens earlier this year in a five-set match at Greenville, S. C., and recently won the Biltmore Forest club invitation tournament, held at Asheville recently.

The entry lists will close at 12 noon Saturday and anyone wishing to enter may do so at Spaulding's, 74 North Broad street, or by mail with Frank Owens, 610 Grant building, who is chairman of the tournament committee.

VETERANS GIVE WAY TO GIRLS IN WEST OPEN

Chicago, August 24. (P)—Miss Naomi Hull, an 18-year-old girl of Kendallville, Ind., with a 10-putter, won a place among first-rank women golfers of the middle west today by eliminating Mrs. Lee Mide, holder of 11 course records in the Chicago district, in the first round of the women's western championship tournament at Olympia field, 2 up and 1 to play. The 18-year-old girl is becoming the superb golfer of the qualifying medalist was the most spectacular performance in a day characterized by the unexpected.

Several school girls playing in the tournament for the first time eliminated veteran opponents to swing honors of the day largely to the teenage competitors among the 32 qualifiers.

Sixteen of the original field of more than 150 remain in the running for the 18-hole second round tomorrow.

Mrs. Gault Loses.
Mrs. Dale Gault of Memphis, 1922 titleholder and long a running player of the country, was unable to pull up consistently on the game which gave her thirty-second qualifying place in the championship flight, and went out before the performance of Mrs. Stewart Hanley, of Lochmoor, Detroit, 4 and 3.

Two other southern players followed Mrs. Gault in defeat, Mrs. D. S. Raymond, Baton Rouge, the Louisiana champion, falling before Mrs. Curtis Soli, of Columbus, Ohio, 4 and 2, and Mrs. Carl P. Liebold, of Birmingham, Ala., losing to Mrs. Jay S. Casarieu, Aurora, Ill., 5 and 3.

Miss Marion Turpie, of Audubon, New Orleans, the southern titleholder, won handily from Miss Vera Gardiner, Chicago, 6 and 5. She faces Mrs. Melvin Jones, also of Chicago, tomorrow.

HOTEL-BERKSHIRE

Convenience, Comfort and Economy

The New Berkshire Hotel is happily removed from the bustle, noise and dust of commercial Chicago. Yet, a five minutes' walk or a short ride on either surface lines or bus takes you to the Chicago "loop"—the theatres—Lake Michigan—bathing beaches—Lincoln Park—and a score of other interesting places about the city. Here is the ideal hotel for tourists, commercial traveler or resident. It is just north of the "loop"—near the Tribune Tower and Wrigley buildings.

The lobby is of the seventeenth century English style with high walnut beamed ceiling, luxurious thick carpets and colorful oil paintings. Adjoining is the attractive "Little English Cafe." Guest rooms are artistically decorated and beautifully furnished.

You will also be pleased with the Berkshire service—attained through the extensive experience of the Wenzel Hotel, Inc., in operating eight other hotels.

Senator George To Speak At Piedmont College Rally

A monster educational meeting of far-reaching importance to southeast Georgia is scheduled to take place in Waycross August 27. It was learned here Tuesday. This meeting has for its purpose the financing and endowment of Piedmont college, a junior college for boys and girls, the only institution of its kind in this section of the state.

Due to his interest in better educational facilities for the state of Georgia, and upon invitation of officials of Piedmont institute and the Sessions Loan & Trust company, of Atlanta, which is assisting Piedmont in raising itself from a local school to an amply financed and endowed junior college, Senator Walter F. George will make the principal address. Senator George will talk entirely along educational lines and will lend himself to the successful accomplishment of the purposes of the meeting. It is said here.

W. R. Crites, of Atlanta, widely known through his addresses and articles on the subject of Georgia's general development also will have a prominent part on the program.

Colonel David Parker, Judge John W. Bennett and C. E. Gibson, chairman of the trustees of the Piedmont institution, will take an active part not only in organization, but in other wise bringing the meeting to a successful conclusion.

Piedmont college will be the only school of its kind in southeastern Georgia. It will be at the service of the boys and girls of the rural districts and will furnish within its limits a higher education, and, owing to the fact that it is located in the section, will eliminate a great deal of the expense generally attached to a college education, officials point out. Prominent men from over twenty counties have signified their intention of being present at the meeting and give their assistance.

Included in plans for the greater field of work a building program is planned. A $40,000 boys' dormitory is now under construction and additional buildings will be added as fast as possible. A building of about the same class is soon to be erected for girls.

To further the growth of this college a prominent citizen of Waycross has just donated 25 acres of land, which, in addition to the 7 acres already owned by the institution, will give ample campus and expansion room.

The campaign covering complete financing of this project has been under way for some weeks. Approximately one-third of the objective has been reached.

NINTH WARD CLUB NAMES NEW GROUP FOR DIRECTORATE

Upon submission of a list of names by Wade H. Davis, chairman of the nominating committee of the Ninth Ward Civic forum, at the forum's third meeting Monday night in the Moreland Avenue school, the following directorate was unanimously elected: Dr. H. S. McCarty, Dr. J. V. Pendergast, W. H. Camp, D. L. Echols, Sidney Greenblatt, J. Oscar Mills, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stitt, F. H. Sneed, I. L. Crawford, Brown Hayes, G. Lloyd Preacher, L. H. Geiger, J. F. Mayfield, P. H. Snook, L. D. Oglesby, J. Lawrence Turner, Lee Ashcraft, J. B. and Cotton Mather, Ralph Walker, G. Lester Forbes, J. R. Dickey, W. D. Coleman, Charles A. Nichols, Ben Padgett, Lloyd Parks, Osborn Chambers, Arthur Brooke, J. Moore Reeves, W. A. Horne, H. D. Carter, B. F. Bell, John N. Malone, R. M. Callaway, A. W. Malone, W. Lee Morrison, Judge W. F. Jenkins, Henry B. Longino, George W. Powell, L. C. Jennings, Ed Ivey, Mrs. N. Bodenheimer, Mrs. A. Guy Smith, Mrs. Russell K. Smith, Mrs. Frank Koyt, Mrs. F. J. McDonald, Mrs. R. K. Rambo, Mrs. George Price and Mrs. R. L. Reed.

Officers of the Ninth Ward Civic forum, who are John M. Miller, president; Mrs. A. Guy Smith, vice president; Mrs. L. I. Turner, secretary, and W. M. Kekeley, treasurer, were elected ex-officio members of the board of directors.

Following the regular meeting of the civic body, candidates for various city offices addressed the gathering.

LOOSE AWNING ARM HITS MAN ON HEAD; STUNNED BY BLOW

An awning arm reversed its usual routine of duty late Monday afternoon on Peachtree street and as a result, Alton C. Cowles, district broker for the Public Theater, had to be told what it was all about, some time later.

Mr. Cowles, well-known young business man, was walking away from his office Monday afternoon and as he passed a nearby business establishment, a heavy awning arm became loosened and fell on his head.

He was knocked unconscious and had to be carried into a store. He later went to his office and obtained first aid and then went to his home, where his physician attended his injury. No serious result is expected from the blow, it was reported Tuesday night, but he was unable to be at his office during the day.

ALLEGED SWINDLER'S RETURN IS SOUGHT

Requisition for the return to Georgia of R. E. Grabel, charged with giving a check without funds and who is now said to be in North Carolina, was received at the governor's office Tuesday.

The requisition was signed by Raymond Pierce, solicitor of the city court of Jessup, Ga. The petitioner named J. C. Mattox, sheriff of Wayne county, an agent for return of Grabel.

SOLDIERS' HOME PLAN GETS WIDE SUPPORT

Support in the movement to establish a national soldiers and sailors' home in the vicinity of Atlanta for veterans of all wars has been received by the Southern National Soldiers and Sailors' Home committee from many prominent men throughout the country. Sam C. Crane, secretary of the committee, stated Tuesday night.

Mr. Crane said he had received many favorable letters from Spanish war veterans from "points as far distant as the state of Washington, indicating the need of establishing the home in the south, where none yet exists, and expressing a particular desire to see it located near Atlanta, where the climatic and other conditions are so favorable." Mr. Crane has also received letters, he said, praising the stand he took some time ago with regard to the filing of claims for disabled war veterans by pension claim agents.

"If the national soldiers' home can be secured for Atlanta or its vicinity," Mr. Crane stated, "it will be one of the largest humanitarian institutions in the United States. Bills for the appropriation of $1,000,000 for the home and for its establishment here, prepared by Senator W. J. Harris and Congressman W. D. Upshaw, are pending introduction in congress at the coming December session."

24 Play Centers Re-open Monday, Committee Plans

Twenty-four Atlanta play centers are expected to open again Monday to continue operation for at least another month, according to a decision of the parks committee of city council at a special called session Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Camp, supervisor, was employed to supervise the work, and it was decided to ask council at its next regular meeting to appropriate $3,000 to run the whole group of play centers until the first of the year, at which time the finance committee will be asked to provide funds for the year-round program of the playgrounds.

It was announced at first, that only centrally located playgrounds would be kept open and that the parks department would attempt to run them without asking council for additional funds, but Councilman W. E. Saunders, of the twelfth ward, who is one of the champions and initiators of the year-round program, opposed this on the ground that these would be scattered all over the city and that children living in certain sections would thus be deprived of the advantages of supervised play.

His contention was seconded by Councilman Charles Chosewood, of the third, and was passed without opposition.

ADVENTISTS ASSAIL WORLD COURT PLAN

"Foes of the world court are preparing for a supreme fight to take the United States out of that body. This nation is on the way to a terrible crisis," said Dr. B. G. Wilkinson, of Washington, D. C., to a large audience Tuesday night in the big pavilion at the Seventh-day Adventist campground, at the corner of Decker and Belmont streets.

"Intelligent leaders of the world today stand with their hearts in their mouth. Apparently world affairs of far no outlook. A dark and threatening bank lies ahead of the world's ship, and we must turn our eyes to the Bible to see if this uncertain object ahead is charted on the eternal map."

"Step by step former students of the Bible have easily discovered the great prophetic outlines of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Rome and the great kingdoms of modern Europe."

"The Bible also makes it plain that the United States will never go down before a foreign foe, but is threatened by a gigantic conspiracy in its midst to overthrow the constitution, form a union of church and state, and to turn this country back into the scenes of barbarism and intolerance of the past."

"What is the remedy? First the American people must be cured of their tendency toward freak legislation. Secondly, something must be done to stop church interference in civil affairs.

"A terrible crisis is rising before us, and a threat hangs over America to drag her into the bankrupt nations of the world. To many great statesmen civilization seemed doomed. But thank God, there is still one remedy left. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only man who was great enough and big enough when he was leaving this world to say 'I will come again.' When Abraham Lincoln was dying, when George Washington was dying, neither one of these said 'I will come again.' The hour is here for the second coming of Christ."

Tomorrow night Dr. Wilkinson will lecture on the "Blue Law" movement.

Late August Finds Society Preparing for Busy Fall

These days of apparent inactivity are in reality quite busy ones for society folk. The latter days of August and the first of September mark that in between period when preparation for the fall season are in full swing. Vacationists are beginning to return to their homes after summers at various resorts and are taking their accustomed places in the social realm.

Holding the center of attention these last summer days are the brides of the very early fall, whose parties are adding to the gaiety of the late summer season. Rivaling in popularity with the lovely brides-elect are a group of popular visitors who are being entertained daily at delightful parties.

Miss Roberta McDaniel, of Augusta, and Misses Sarah and Ethel Kunzig, of New York, are a trio of lovely visitors who will be honored with social affairs today. Dinner-dances at the new Athletic club and the Biltmore hotel will be gay events of the evening and will climax the number of informal gathies given during the day.

WHICH WOULD YOU CHOOSE?

If some good fairy should appear, as they did in the old fairy tales and offer to grant your heart's desire, what would you choose?

Wealth? It's a transient thing that brings its own cares.

Happiness? It's an elusive thing which we keep by giving away.

Health? That's the best gift. Health is riches that gold cannot buy, and surely health is cause enough for happiness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be the good fairy who offers you this priceless gift of better health.—(adv.)

a bridge-luncheon at the Black Rock Country club Tuesday afternoon, August 31, in compliment to Mrs. Jack Helvin, of Miami, Florida, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Stewart, at her home in West End park.

Miss Ellis Is Guest at Tea.

Misses Nancy and Betty Stribling were hostesses at tea Tuesday afternoon at their home in Ansley Park in compliment to their guest, Miss Lenoir Ellis, of Augusta.

Summer flowers were used throughout the reception rooms as decorations. Misses Stribling were assisted in entertaining their guests by their mother, Mrs. T. O. Stribling, and their sister, Miss Dorothy Stribling.

One hundred guests called during the hours from 4 to 6 o'clock.

College Park Club Plans Luncheon

The College Park Woman's club will have an advertisement luncheon for the benefit of their building fund on Friday, August 27, at 1 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Dan C. Lyle. Reservations may be made as late as Thursday noon by phoning Mrs. Dan C. Lyle, Fairfax 1023, or Mrs. Oscar Palmour, Fairfax 1304-W.

Women's Bible Class To Hold Picnic.

Miss Moore Weds Joseph A. Latimer.

Centering the interest of many friends in the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hill Moore, daughter of Mrs. Georgia L. Moore, of Vinings, Ga., to Joseph Arnold Latimer, the marriage having been solemnized at 6 o'clock Monday afternoon, August 25, at the First Baptist church. The impressive ring service was performed by Dr. Charles W. Daniel.

The bride was lovely in a beautiful gown of midnight blue crepe heavily embroidered in Oriental colors. Her hat was of coral silver and she wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Latimer is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Georgia L. Moore, of Vinings, Ga. Mr. Latimer is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Latimer. He holds a responsible position with Greenberg & Bond. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for a motor trip through the mountains of North Carolina.

Mrs. Tomlin Weds Mr. Davidson.

On cordial interest to a wide circle of friends is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Katie Mae Tomlin and Samuel A. Davidson, which took place Sunday evening, August 22, at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. W. J. Debardeleben.

The bride was gown in a Venetian blue georgette with accessories to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

After their trip to Washington and New York Mrs. and Mr. Davidson will be at home at 22 Kennesaw avenue.

Miss Carreker Is Honored.

Miss Mattie Sue House was hostess Saturday at a tea given at the Atlanta Biltmore in honor of Miss Ouida Carreker, whose engagement to Spencer Grady Mullins, of Thomaston, Ga., was recently announced. The congenial group of guests invited included Miss Ouida Carreker, Miss Mrs. Eugene McLoughlin, Mrs. M. Lida Eberhardt, Miss Paulina Bell, C. Mathews, Mrs. A. F. McKelam.

Exhibit of Rare Paintings Attracting Many People to Philibosian's Beautiful Store

Large Space on First Floor
Used for Gallery and Public
Extended Cordial Invitation to Attend.

This picture shows in exquisite detail a battle scene in which frenzied men, women, children and horses are hurled together in the maelstrom of war, struggling for life, at the same time striving to kill.

This painting is valued at several thousand dollars and is one of the many rare pictures which Philibosian has brought to Atlanta for this exhibit.

Other Attractions at the Store.

In addition to the exhibit of paintings, it is well worth a trip to the store to see the magnificent display of furniture and Oriental rugs.

One of the finest dining room suites ever shown in Atlanta has just been received by Stephen Philibosian and is now on display here.

The suite is one of three suites of its kind made by the Royal Furniture Company of Grand Rapids, and is priced at $4,500. It's a treat to see this real work of art in furniture design, as few stores in the entire country ever show anything as fine.

This, however, does not mean that all merchandise at Philibosian's is "exclusive," but the huge stock includes a great range of price.

The bulk of the stock is popular priced and anyone planning the purchase of furniture or household furnishings of any kind should see this beautiful store without fail.

What Are You Studying?

HISTORY, mathematics, literature, languages, science? In your whole curriculum, there is no lesson more important than how to guard your health. Long after your hard-won French vocabulary is forgotten, you will be putting into daily practice—if you are wise—the rules of health.

School work, with its continual studying, its sports, dances and social affairs demands a vigorous body. How discouraging it is to miss the good times. And sometimes, how unnecessary.

First of all, then, learn the lesson of health. Find out what fresh air will do, exercise, sleep and proper food. Many school girls have learned that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped them to find the health they needed and has made their school days happier.

"I gave my fifteen year old daughter, Louise, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did her a wonderful lot of good. She had been out of school for four months. I read the advertisements of the Vegetable Compound, and since she has taken it she has improved and has gone back to school again. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to other mothers with girls who are not as strong as they should be."

The Misty Pathway

By FLORENCE RIDDELL

INSTALLMENT XXVII.

FAIRWAYS FOLLOWS RICHENDA.

Brett Fairways had sworn vehemently under his breath as he saw the car which should have taken Lucille out of his life forever, drive in a cloud of dust round the curve of the hill and disappear from sight.

An amused giggle from the woman at his side had added fuel to his anger.

"How will you get rid of me now, Brett?"

"You'll walk to the railway siding," he answered tersely. "If you start in half an hour you can catch the five o'clock train into Nairobi."

She gave vent to a stifled exclamation of annoyance then smiled a little grimly. After all, she would get that seven hundred pounds, which meant a great deal to her at the present moment. Moreover, there might yet be a time ahead when she could use this man for her own purposes. At present she had lost this round of the game, the wisest thing for her to do was to fall amicably into the line of action he demanded of her.

He was making his way up the hillside now.

"Come on, you'll have to hurry," he called.

She padded silently behind him, her high little heels catching in the clumps of tufted grass as she came.

As they reached the encampment, Fairways' anxious eyes went at once to his tent. And the flap of that tent, no longer tied securely, was suddenly drawn aside, and there appeared the figure of Jerome, a pile of Fairways' clothes over his arm, a brush in one hand, apparently intent on proceeding with the valet duties which were part of his daily labor.

"Brodie, let me in. I want my wife."

Fairways was by his side in one moment peering into the dimness of the tent.

"Wapi memsahib!" he demanded.

The memsahib, the boy told him, had gone to meet the bwana by the bamboo forest. She had walked down the path up which he came.

With a word to Lucille, who was already embarked upon her task of hasty packing, Fairways was striking down the hillside again.

"Richinda! Richinda! Diekie!" his voice echoed among the trees.

Suddenly he saw a little patch of white on the grass ahead. Her handkerchief! He picked it up, mechanically fingered the silk woven initial in one corner, stood for a moment at a man frozen in his steps.

"Merciful heavens," he whispered, "she came here. She must have heard it all!"

He knew now why that car had suddenly elected to depart. Conviction came to him that she had gone in it—and he, poor fool, he had stood in his ignorance and watched the very going of her.

"Brodie, let me in. I want my wife."

Where had she gone? Ah, that was the question to which he must find an answer.

The next hour was among the most trying ones of Fairways' life.

In an incredibly short time he was hustling Mrs. Davenport on her way to the railway siding, two panting boys following in the rear with her suit cases. To Lucille he had not breathed a word of his discovery. He went believing that Richenda still slept in the camp behind.

A few words by Fairways to Jerome, who understood elementary English, sufficed to gain the information sought. The slumbering native nodded his head vigorously. By all his gods, he had seen a car go! Had it not nearly ground him beneath its iron feet as it leapt in starting?

O, yes, there was a memsahib in it—a memsahib whom he had seen come running down the hill. And she had cried that they should speed much. Which way? He scratched his clay bedaubed head and pointed vaguely down the road. "O, that way."

"But ask him what the memsahib said," Fairways was fidgeting in excitement now.

"She said: 'Pace, pace' (hurry)," came the reply.

"But pace where? To Nairobi? To Nakuru? To—"

A light of comprehension came into the dusky face. "The memsahib said: 'I will go to Lambogru,'" he told them.

It was exactly three hours after the engine which bore Lucille out of his life had steamed away that Brett Fairways boarded a trundling goods train, which by good fortune would arrive at the small station of Lambogru somewhere about midnight.

Richenda stirred uneasily in her sleep. Through her dream ran a dulled suggestion of some one hammering—she could hear the muffled beat of it. She was floating down a country lane, curiously at ease, and somewhere in front of her was a pile of stones. Men were thudding blows on those stones—chipping them into flying pieces. She turned on her side. What a noise they made! She wished—There it was again, louder now, near at hand. And they were calling—calling hoarsely and insistently. Her eyes opened slowly, the mists of sleep still clouding them. Yes, somebody was calling—knocking and calling.

Came the scrape of a chair across the wood planked floor of the adjacent room. Then Brodie's voice in penetrating calmness.

"Who are you and what do you want?"

Another voice quick in answer. Richenda's feet swung suddenly over the side of her bed, the last shadow of sleep vanishing in a single instant.

"Brodie, let me in. I want—my wife!"

She was over at the door now, fumbling with the key, turning it in the lock—turning it against the fretted coming of her husband—she who had not thought of turning it between her and the man whose shelter she had sought. There she stood, white lipped behind the door, her bare feet powerless to move on the cold wooden floor, motionless, listening.

Not for one instant had she imagined he would trace her so quickly. He had known, of course, that Brodie's farm was at Lambogru, but how was it possible that he should have guessed at once that she would come here?

And having guessed, how could he know so definitely that she was in the house? Richenda forgot the telltale presence of the car in front of the door.

"Let me in. I want—my wife!" It was the last two words that came so unexpectedly upon Angus Brodie! He had never for an instant imagined that the wedding was an accomplished fact. He had taken it for granted that Richenda was still a fresh complexion. Brodie, the child of generations of rigid Scottish Presbyterians, held marriage as something indissoluble. "Let no man put asunder"—that was part of his creed regarding it. Richenda free, calling upon him for protection, was an allowable thing. He would shield her with his very life and need consider himself answerable to nobody. But Richenda married was part of this man outside the door—this man who called in possibly righteous anger that access be no longer withheld from him. In common fairness Brodie must hear what he had to say.

He had shot back the bolt of the outer door then, trusting hopefully that Richenda in her weariness had slept through the few brief moments of noise.

TOBACCO PRICES GOOD, HEAVY SALES EXPECTED

Macon, Ga., August 24.—(AP)—The first 11 markets reporting today showed a total of nearly 2,000,000 pounds of leaf tobacco disposed of at an average price of 25 cents per pound.

Vidalia headed the list for volume of leaf sold, the total being just under 1,000,000 pounds.

Thomasville reports that delivery of leaf at the warehouse is being speeded up by the announcement that the market there will close on August 31. The highest price at Thomasville was 60 cents a pound. At Quitman the high mark was 48 cents.

The record of sales:

Dry Goods.

New York, August 24.—Cotton goods demand slackened a little way after sharp price advances, but trading has been brisk since the cotton report was issued Monday. Print goods were in light demand. Linens, sheetings and coverlets were quiet. Ties, fabrics, cotton duck and other heavy goods were in moderate demand. Towels, handkerchiefs advanced sharply in Calcutta and more interest has developed in October-December delivery goods. Trading here was active Tuesday, with sales higher than yesterday at Yokohama, with sales moderate here. The local market maintained its activity, with sales lighter. The strike in Japan is delaying work very much on goods made in Osaka. Demand for men's wear mills continued to sell moderately in both spring and fall goods divisions.
